

BIODATA

VU THI TRANG, PhD, Head of Laboratory of Nutrients and Food Additives, National Institute for Food Control, Ministry of Health. She took Ph.D on Analytical Chemistry at Hanoi University of Science, Vietnam National University, in 2020. She has 15 years of experience in the food chemistry testing laboratory specifically for nutrients and food additives. She has some articles published in national and international journals on analytical chemical methods. Currently her research focusing on food safety risk assessment. She participates in the development of technical standards and technical regulations on food safety. She is member of editor board for the Vietnam journal of food control.

