Biography

Full name, Title: Dr. Jing TIAN

Position: Vice-Chairperson of the Codex Alimentarius Commission

Affiliation: China National Center for Food Safety Risk Assessment (CFSA)

Dr. Jing TIAN is Vice-Chairperson of the Codex Alimentarius Commission and currently works at the China National Center for Food Safety Risk Assessment (CFSA). She graduated from China Medical University with a degree in public health and has more than 20 years of experience in the management of national food safety standards and Codex-related research.

Dr. Tian is serving as Secretary-General of the Secretariat of the China National Codex Committee and as a member of the Microbiology Committee of the National Food Safety Standards Review Committee. From 2020 to 2024, she served as Chairperson of the FAO/WHO Coordinating Committee for Asia (CCASIA).

Since 2005, Dr. Tian has been actively engaged in Codex work, participating in numerous sessions of the Codex Alimentarius Commission and its subsidiary bodies and serving on many occasions as spokesperson for the Chinese delegation. Her extensive involvement in Codex has provided her with broad experience in international food standards development and coordination.

Dr. Tian has also led and participated in a wide range of research projects related to food safety standards and their national management. She has contributed to the development and revision of nearly 30 national food safety standards and to the translation and preparation of more than 10 publications on food safety standards.
